Addreſs—Of Thanks for the Lords Commiſſioners Speech at the opening of the Seſſion: To aſſure His Majeſty, That the Houſe are met with a determination cordially to ſupport His Majeſty in the proſecution of the War: To expreſs their Acknowledgments to Him for having been graciouſly pleaſed to direct to be laid before them, Copies of the Propoſals for opening a Negotiation, which were tranſmitted to His Majeſty from Erfurth; of the Correſpondence with Ruſſia and France, and of the Declaration iſſued by His Majeſty, on the Termination of that Correſpondence: To congratulate His Majeſty on the ſtrong Aſſurances which He continues to receive from the Spaniſh Government, of their determined Perſeverance in the cauſe of the legitimate Monarchy, and of the National Independence of Spain; humbly to expreſs the Satisfaction which they feel in learning that His Majeſty has renewed to the Spaniſh Nation, in the moment of its Difficulties and Reverſes, the Engagements which His Majeſty voluntarily contracted at the outſet of its Struggles, againſt the Uſurpation and Tyranny of France: To aſſure His Majeſty of their entire participation in the lively ſatisfaction with which His Majeſty has contemplated the atchievements of His Forces in the commencement of the Campaign in Portugal, and the deliverance of that Kingdom from the preſence and oppreſſion of the French Army, while on the other hand, they regret the termination of that Campaign, by an Armiſtice and Convention, of ſome of the Articles of which His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to inform them He has felt himſelf obliged formally to declare His diſapprobation: To aſſure His Majeſty, that He may rely on their diſpoſition to enable Him to continue the Aid afforded by His Majeſty to the King of Sweden: To return His Majeſty their humble Thanks for directing the Eſtimates of the current Year to be laid before them; and to aſſure Him, that He may rely upon their zeal and affection to make ſuch further Proviſion of Supply as the vigorous proſecution of the War may render neceſſary; and that they learn with the higheſt ſatisfaction, that notwithſtanding the meaſures reſorted to by the Enemy, the Public Revenue has continued in a courſe of progreſſive improvement: Humbly to thank His Majeſty for informing them, that the meaſures adopted by Parliament for eſtabliſhing a Local Militia, has been already attended with the happieſt ſucceſs; and that it promiſes to be extenſively and permanently beneficial to the Country: Finally, to aſſure His Majeſty, that duly weighing the immenſe Intereſts which are at ſtake in the War now carrying on, they will, in obedience to the ſpecial direction of His Majeſty, proceed with as little little delay as poſſible, to conſider of the moſt effectual Meaſures for the Augmentation of the Regular Army, in order that His Majeſty may be the better enabled, without impairing the means of Defence at Home, to avail Himſelf of the Military power of His Dominions in the great conteſt in which His Majeſty is engaged, and to conduct that conteſt, by the bleſſing of Providence, to a concluſion compatible with the honour of His Majeſty's Crown, and with the Intereſts of His Allies, of Europe, and of the World; Reſolved on, and Committee appointed to prepare it; to withdraw immediately, and Lords Commiſſioners Speech referred, 19 JAN. Addreſs reported, and agreed to; to be preſented by Privy Councillors, 20.
